COMO MAALIFUSHI

An aerial photograph of a tropical resort. In the foreground, there is a dense forest of palm trees and lush greenery. Beyond the trees, a white sandy beach curves along the edge of the water. The water is a vibrant turquoise color, transitioning to a deeper blue further out. A long, curved pier extends from the beach into the water, leading to a large, semi-circular arrangement of overwater bungalows. Each bungalow has a thatched roof and is built on stilts. The sky is a clear, bright blue with a few wispy white clouds. In the upper right corner, there is a quote in a cursive font, and below it, the author's name and work are listed in a smaller, sans-serif font.

*...let there be spaces in your togetherness.
And let the winds of heaven
dance between you...*

Kahlil Gibran, The Prophet

A couple is seen from behind, running barefoot on a sandy beach towards the ocean. The man is wearing a white shirt and dark trousers, with a dark jacket slung over his shoulder. The woman is wearing a white wedding dress and has a floral crown on her head. They are holding hands and running towards the horizon under a vast, cloudy sky.

STAYING AT COMO MAALIFUSHI

STEP INTO ANOTHER WORLD

COMO Maalifushi is reached by a 60-minute seaplane transfer from the international airport in Malé. When you arrive, you'll find 65 beautiful wooden suites and villas spread across the island – some overwater, with sun decks and private pools, others on land, backed by jungle at the edge of the sand. Each villa has been designed to bring the outside in, with windows that drench your world with light. Al fresco living is at its best here. Days spent beneath the balmy skies are finished with evening dining under a canopy of stars.

LOCATIONS FOR YOUR EVENT

This secluded private island resort offers a range of locations for your ceremony and parties on either side of the main event.

Madi Beach will give your wedding an intimate feel, with a tropical floral canopy on a concealed section of beach.

You could also choose to get married on a quiet overwater platform at the tip of the jetty, surrounded by endless ocean views. Alternatively, vows can be exchanged at Palm Island, which is joined to the main resort by a long, wooden jetty. Here your guests will discover tree trunk tables and a beach bar made of palm trees.

Another venue option – the uninhabited island of Lavadhoo, a 10-minute boat ride away – will give your wedding a Robinson Crusoe spirit, with groves of green palm trees, crystal clear waters, swaying hammocks and an authentic tiki bar. Couples looking for a more private wedding experience can also choose to marry on the deck of our COMO Residence, enjoying views across the peaceful Indian Ocean.

Prevailing weather conditions on the day may affect which locations can be used.

SIZE

COMO Maalifushi can accommodate your wedding whatever the size, from a small and intimate gathering to a complete island takeover for up to 150 guests.

CEREMONY

Your ceremony in the Maldives is a blessing and not recognised by law. Many couples choose to marry legally at home before celebrating their union here at COMO Maalifushi. However you choose to mark the occasion, your wedding coordinator will be here to meet you, to confirm all your special plans and guide you through the ceremony on the day.

DINING

At COMO Maalifushi, we create unique, innovative menus that reflect the region's fresh, tropical produce and abundant seafood. Dishes are light, full of flavour and tailored to your preferences.

We can also incorporate COMO Shambhala Cuisine into your wedding menus, allowing your guests to pursue energy-giving, healthful dining – carefully calibrated over 20 years by our COMO Shambhala nutritionist.

WELLNESS

The leeward side of our private island is occupied by COMO Shambhala Retreat, which fans out into overwater treatment rooms, steam facilities, a fitness centre and an open-air yoga pavilion with inspiring views of the Indian Ocean.

We have expert instructors to lead classes, including yoga, Pilates and meditation. We also have therapists to deliver revitalising Asian-inspired massages and classic beauty treatments – helping you relax before your guests arrive.
